The haunted castle!

In a village there was castle, not an ordinary castle but a haunted castle! In that castle there were Zombies and ghosts and Vampires. Now the strange thing is nobody ever went in the castle because people say that a long time ago a boy went in and he got spooked to death.

One day a girl went inside the castle and when she got to the spooky hallway she went in a room named Vampire Coffin. The girl opened the coffin lid and laying in that coffin was a sleeping terrifying Vampire. The little girl ran for her life. She went through a secret door which led into a room called the ghost of the attic. Suddenly a phantom jumped out from the wall. The girl screamed and she was so scared that she ran away and fell into a trap door! This trapped door led her to a room named Zombie potion and in that room a horrifying Zombie came up to the terrified little girl and nearly put her in a bubbling potion.

Eventually the little girl managed to escape and she muttered to herself that she would never go into a castle again!
